

About Us

Where healthcare feels human, technology feels gentle, and every story matters.

Who We Are

At SaludLink & Wellness, we believe healthcare should feel warm, clear, and deeply human. That's why we built a space where modern care meets genuine connection through telemedicine in Florida, elective ultrasounds in Tampa, and advanced 2D/3D/4D HD ultrasounds in Tampa that allow families to bond long before birth.

We're here for patients who want medical expertise without coldness, distance, or confusion, patients who value clarity, compassion, and high-quality care delivered with intention.

Meet Dr. Eloika

Every great vision has a human story behind it. Ours begins with Dr. Eloika, a physician trained abroad whose journey reflects resilience, purpose, and an unwavering love for helping others.

Before founding SaludLink & Wellness, she witnessed a recurring reality: people facing healthcare that felt rushed, distant, or emotionally disconnected. She knew patients deserved more, more clarity, more empathy, more support, whether they relied on telemedicine in Florida or ultrasounds in Tampa during meaningful moments.

A physician who listens before she diagnoses.

With telemedicine in Florida, she focuses on presence, understanding, and thoughtful guidance, not rushed virtual check-ins.

A prenatal experience rooted in emotion and skill.

Families who receive 2D/3D/4D ultrasounds in Tampa immediately feel her calming, confident approach. She explains every detail with clarity while creating unforgettable emotional moments for expecting families.

Bilingual care that builds trust

She communicates fluently in English and Spanish, ensuring cultural respect and emotional connection. Her vision shaped a practice where science and heart coexist, every day, with every patient.

SaludLink & Wellness was created to transform that reality.
